Interdepartmental communication is limited for many within the agency. Having routine meetings would both humanize the relationships and provide opportunities for personnel to understand the work involved from all sides.	Fiscal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Monthly or bi-monthly rotations matching up departments</li> <li>- Fiscal to meet with various departments for scheduled sit-downs or lunches to discuss various facets of the agency or to improve interpersonal relationships.</li> </ul>	-Create tracking sheet for department meet-ups within 6 months. Update: Not implemented

Many employees at the agency struggle with “creative” or open-ended writing prompts that are part of most grant applications. A grant writing course would improve CAPMC’s chances at being awarded grants.	Fiscal	-More focused understanding of grant writing -Improved verbiage and linkage for fiscal to programmatic narratives	-Attend trainings; Enroll participants in Fresno State continuing and global education courses for grant writing and management.  -Record when employees enroll in courses.  - Within 6 months  Update:  One employee enrolled in CSUF CGE for grant-writing

OBJECTIVE COMMENTARY	OWNER	INITIATIVES	MEASURES
Fiscal staff should be able to confidently answer questions and refer potential clients to various programs within CAPMC. Many clients of the agency qualify for more than one of the programs offered.	Fiscal	-Accounting Program Managers should have a clear understanding of program requirements  -Employees should have an understanding of what services CAPMC offers and direct reference points in each department.	-Cross training sessions  -Fiscal staff will learn programmatic concepts and eligibility levels for their programs then cross-train within fiscal.  -Create tracking sheet for internal training sessions.  - Within 12 months  Update:  Not implemented
